--UI Changes-- Changed the main pager bank to have it's own custom subclass of QListWidget instead of being the same class as the pager lists on the body. This allows us to add different functionality to the main pager bank. I also added the functionality of whenever a pager is dragged onto the body from the main pager list it is greyed out and unable to be selected again until the pager on the body is deleted and restored back into the main pager bank.	Garrett Phelps	10/27/13 (5 hours)
Transferred outline of API classes to actual code.	Jacob Cramer	11/1/13 (3 hours)
